

Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame
2019 Men's Silver Anniversary Team

TIM BISHOP

1994 Indiana All-Star, Indianapolis News 2nd team all-state, AP high honorable mention all-state and IBCA honorable mention all-state. Averaged 18.9 points as senior for 28-1 state runner-up team. Averaged 14.3 points as junior for 17-6 sectional champions. 1st team all-state in basketball, football and baseball, he was drafted by the New York Mets in the 1994 MLB Draft and pursued baseball. He played four seasons in the minor leagues before being killed in a car accident.

VALPARAISO

AARON BROWN

1992 and 1994 Henry County Player of the Year and 1994 1st team small school all-state. Graduated as KHS 2nd all-time leading scorer with 1,469 points after averaging 25.7 points and 13.1 rebounds as senior, 18.6 points and 10.0 rebounds as junior and 18.0 points and 8.6 rebounds as a sophomore. He earned all-sectional honors three times. Playing in 74 games in four seasons at Central Michigan University, he totaled 690 career points (9.3 ppg), averaging a career-best 11.3 points as a senior. As a sophomore, he was 4th in the nation in NCAA Division I basketball shooting 49% 3FG and received the AT&T Long Distance Award in January 1996, leading the nation with 68% 3FG for that month. Employed with Coca-Cola and Forgotten Children Worldwide, since 2016 he is National Director of Operations for Destiny Rescue in North Webster. He resides in Fort Wayne.

KNIGHTSTOWN

DAMON COBB

Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state, AP high honorable mention all-state, IBCA honorable mention all-state, the 1993 & 1994 Evansville Player of the Year and 1993 & 1994 Area Player of the Year. Graduated as 2nd leading scorer in Memorial history and all-time steals leader after averaging 24.1 points and 7 rebounds as a senior for 14-7 SIAC regular season champs and 18 points and 5.4 rebounds as a junior for 18-6 sectional champions and hitting over 40% on 3FGs his three varsity seasons. Four-year regular at UAB, setting the school freshman scoring record, 1st team freshman all-conference, graduating as UAB's #2 in career steals, 10th all-time leading scorer, 3rd in career 3FG made and UAB record for consecutive FTs made and the all-time Conference USA leader in steals. Averaged 11 ppg as senior, 9.4 as junior and 9.5 as sophomore on teams that made two NIT Tournaments and 1998 NCAA Tournament. A recipient of the Conference USA Academic Medal of Honor and Scholar Athlete of the Year for four consecutive years, he was an Academic All-American, recipient of one of five NCAA post graduate scholarships and earned a medical degree. An OBGYN, he is in private practice in San Diego, California, where he resides.

EVANSVILLE MEMORIAL

SCOTT COMBS

1994 Indiana All-Star, AP 1st team all-state, Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state, Indianapolis News 1st team all-state, IBCA 2nd team all-state, after earning AP, IBCA, Herald Times and Indianapolis News all-state honors as a junior. Graduated as Paoli career scoring leader with 1,958 points, averaging 21.5 as senior, 20.1 as junior and 19.6 as sophomore for teams that won three consecutive regionals. He was named MVP of the HOF Classic, leading scorer in the IN-KY All-Star series, and a Street & Smith's All-American. Played in 117 games in two seasons at University of Missouri and two years at Austin Peay State University, averaging 8.7 points and 6.2 rebounds as a senior. From 1999-2012, he was an assistant coach at Austin Peay and was head coach of Martin Methodist College (NAIA Division I) from 2012-2018, where his teams were 119-72, making three national tournament appearances. He is in his first season as assistant coach at Morehead State University. He was also a coach of the 2016 USA U19 men's basketball team that won silver medal at the United World Games in Austria.

PAOLI

TIGE DARNER

1994 Indiana All-Star. AP 2nd team all-state, IBCA 3rd team all-state, Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state and Indianapolis News 2nd team all-state. Averaged 25.5 points and 5.7 rebounds as senior, setting school single-season FT made record (143) and averaging 12.3 points and 6.1 rebounds as a junior and graduating with 963 career points. Named 1994 Madison County Player of the Year, Indianapolis all-metro 1st team, Street & Smith's honorable mention All-American, Olympic Conference MVP and recipient of the John Wooden Indiana All-Star Citizenship Award. Played in 114 career games (started 100) at Appalachian State University, totaling 1,278 points (11.2 ppg) and tying the school single-game record with 8 3FG made and among career leaders in games, single-game points (30), career 3FG made (170), career 3FG attempts (436), season 3FG% (45.5%) and career 3FG% (38.99%). He is one of only two players in Appalachian State history to record more than 1,250 points, 450 career rebounds and 200 assists. After earning a degree in accounting and attaining CPA status, he is CFO of Tar Heel Capital Corporation, one of the largest Wendy's franchisees in the country. He resides in Boone, North Carolina.

ANDERSON HIGHLANDSEAN DAUGHERTY

1994 Indiana All-Star. AP 2nd team all-state, IBCA 1st team all-state, Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state, and Indianapolis News 2nd team all-state. He received multiple all-state honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. Averaged 18.7 points and 10 rebounds as a senior for 21-5 sectional and Big Eight Conference champions, 23.1 points and 10.8 rebounds as junior on 15-8 team and 19.0 points and 7.4 rebounds as sophomore for 20-3 regional and conference champions. Earned 1994 academic all-state honors, named to Derby Classic and Illiana Roundball Classic, graduating with 1,391 career points. Played in 117 games at the University of Wisconsin, totaling 1,057 points, 644 rebounds, setting the school record with 227 offensive rebounds and graduating as the 7th player in Badgers history with over 1,000 points and 600 rebounds. He played professionally for 15 years in Turkey, France, Croatia and the United States and participated in camps with the NBA Minnesota Timberwolves and Sacramento Kings. Employed with medical firms since 2004, he is currently Division President with Hologic Surgical. He resides in Brookfield, Wisconsin.

VINCENNES LINCOLNBRYCE DREW

1994 Mr. Basketball and Indiana All-Star. Consensus 1st team all-state, Gatorade Indiana Player of the Year and Trester Award winner, averaging 24.7 points for 28-1 state runner-up team. Averaged 17.3 points as junior for 17-6 sectional champs, 15.2 as sophomore and 10.2 as freshman to total 1,577 career points – 2nd best in Valparaiso H.S. history. Participated in Derby Classic and KFC Game in Georgia. Graduated as career scoring leader in Valparaiso University history with 2,142 points and 626 assists, as a 1998 3rd team All-American, two-time Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year, three time 1st team all-conference, three-time conference tournament MVP and two-time Mid-Continent All-Academic team. Led the Mid-Con in scoring, assists, FT% 3FG and 3FG% two seasons. Known for "The Shot" to defeat Ole Miss in 1998 NCAA Tournament, it was ranked the #5 sports moment of 1998 by Sports Illustrated and Valpo would advance to the Sweet 16. Was 16th pick in 1998 NBA Draft, playing in 243 games in six seasons with Houston, Chicago and Charlotte/New Orleans, recording 1,081 points and 524 assists. Assistant coach at Valparaiso University from 2005-11, he was head coach of the Crusaders from 2011-16, earning three Horizon League Coach of the Year honors and twice being named NABC District Coach of the Year. Since 2016, has been head coach at Vanderbilt University. He resides in Nashville, Tennessee.

VALPARAISO

BRIEN HANLEYJEFFERSONVILLE

1994 Indiana All-Star, AP 1st team all-state, Bloomington Herald 1st team all-state and Indianapolis News 1st team all-state. Earned numerous all-state honors as a junior as state finals MVP on 1993 state championship team. Averaged 19.8 points as senior for 22-3 sectional champions, 18.2 points as junior for 29-2 state champions, 7.0 points as sophomore for 24-3 state finalists and 5.0 points as freshman on 21-4 regional champions. In 108 career games, totaled 1,377 points (12.8ppg), 523 rebounds (4.8 rpg) and 463 assists (4.3 apg) for the Red Devils. Attended Xavier University for one season, before pursuing football at Coffeyville Community College (KS) and Kansas State University, as a member of the Wildcats' 1997 Fiesta Bowl champions, 1998 honorable mention all-Big 12 and a starter on the only Kansas State team to reach #1 ranking in the nation. He is currently a senior loan consultant for Caliber Home Loans in Irving, Texas and resides in Frisco, Texas.

SHANE MILLERBLOOMFIELD

1994 Indiana All-Star, AP 3rd team all-state, IBCA 2nd team all-state and Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state. Averaged 28.2 points as a senior for 19-7 regional champions who lost to New Albany in the final game of semi-state, averaged 20.6 points as junior for 16-6 team and averaged 15.4 points as sophomore on 14-8 squad. Totaled 1,476 career points (19.7 ppg) and was named SWIAC all-conference three years. Played in 76 career games for Fairfield University, with 759 career points (10.0 ppg) and hitting 43% 3FG for his career. Was sophomore on Fairfield's MAAC regular season champion team that played in the NIT and junior member of 1997 MAAC Tournament champions and NCAA Tournament team that faced North Carolina. Earning a degree in marketing, he has been employed for 18 years by Swisher International, currently as Vice President Field Sales West. He lives in Bloomfield.

DANNY MOORESHELBYVILLE

AP 3rd team all-state, IBCA honorable mention all-state, Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state. Averaged 21.0 points and 9 rebounds as senior for 13-12 regional champions and averaged 20.4 points and 8 rebounds as junior for 16-7 sectional champions – totaling 848 points, 346 rebound and 164 blocks in two season at Shelbyville. Averaged 13.4 points as sophomore at Roncalli, breaking school blocks record (66 in season). Three-year varsity totals of 1,108 points and 230 blocks. Two-time Indianapolis Star all-metro team, Street & Smith high honorable mention, USA Today Top 10 Indiana players, North-South and East-West All-Star participant and McDonald's All-American nominee. Played nine games due to illness as freshman at Miami (Ohio) before playing three seasons at Missouri State University, totaling 98 games, 1,691 points (17.3ppg), 634 rebounds (6.5 rpg) and 167 blocks (1.7 bpg). Led MSU in scoring, rebounding, blocks, FGs and FTs all three seasons, including their 1999 NCAA Sweet 16 team and graduated with career blocks record, career FT made and FT attempted and 5th in all-time scoring. Set single-season records in FT made, FT attempts and blocks and 3rd best scoring season in school history (645 points as sophomore – 19.5 ppg) A three-time all-MVC pick (twice 1st team), he graduated 1st in MVC history in FG% (54%), 2nd in MVC history in blocks, FG made (574), 3rd in FT% (79%), FT made (538), FG attempts (1068), 4th in FT attempts (685) and 6th in scoring average (17.3) and was named one of the Missouri Valley Conference's 50 greatest players of all-time. He played for three seasons in Spain, averaging over 19 ppg and 7 rpg each season. Earning a bachelors in business and MBA, he is Finance Manager at BJC Healthcare in St. Louis, Missouri. He resides in Dardenne Prairie, Missouri.

DAN MULLERLAFAYETTE CENTRAL CATHOLIC

AP high honorable mention all-state and IBCA honorable mention, averaging 23.9 points and 11.1 rebounds for 16-6 Hoosier Conference championship squad. Averaged 19.0 points as junior and AP honorable mention all-state for 14-7 team and averaged 17.4 points as a sophomore for 13-8 team. Totaled 1,372 points with career 50% FG (542-1082). At Illinois State University, he started in all 128 games of his career, scoring 1,445 points (11.3 ppg), with 682 rebounds (5.3 rpg) and 285 assists. He still holds the school record for consecutive games started (128), minutes played (4,169), 2nd in games started, consecutive games played and 3FG attempts (561), 3rd in defensive rebounds (477), fifth in 3FG made (204), offensive rebounds (205), games played and double-digit scoring games (81), 11th in career scoring and 14th in career assists. Teams won 20+ games each of his four seasons, including 49-12 his final two seasons with two regular season and MVC tournament championships. 1997 and 1998 Conference Defensive Player of the Year, three-time MVC all-defensive team. Three-time academic all-district and 1997 and 1998 Academic All-American honors. Played professionally in Argentina, Canada and Belgium from 1998-2000. Was an assistant coach under Kevin Stallings at Vanderbilt University from 2000-2012, before becoming head coach at Illinois State University in 2012. His teams entered this season 122-80, fifth in program history in wins and earning him 2017 MVC Coach of the Year. He resides in Bloomington, Illinois.

LEE NAILONSOUTH BEND CLAY

1994 Indiana All-Star. AP high honorable mention all-state, IBCA 2nd team all-state, and Bloomington Herald Times 1st team all-state after averaging 19.9 points and 8.6 rebounds per game for 27-2 state champions. Averaged 15.4 points as junior for 15-7 team and 8.6 points as sophomore for 13-8 squad. Career totals of 1,069 points and a school-record 523 rebounds, with the 2nd best single-season scoring total in school history (576). A two-time all-NIC selection and member of 1993 NIC co-champion team. Averaged over 20 ppg in each of his four college seasons – 23.7 ppg and 8.1 rebounds as freshman at Southeastern Iowa CC, 20.2 points and 7.4 rebounds as sophomore at Butler Community College, then 24.9 points and 8.9 rebounds as junior and 22.8 points and 9.3 rebounds as senior at Texas Christian University. In all, he scored 2,924 points and grabbed 1,075 rebounds in his college career. He was a 1996 3rd team Juco All-American, 1997 1st team Juco All-American, 1998 & 1999 1st team all-WAC, 1998 WAC Player of the year and 1998 AP, USBWA and NABC 3rd team All-American. The 43rd overall pick of the 1999 NBA Draft, he played six seasons with Charlotte, New York, Atlanta, Orlando, Cleveland, New Orleans and Philadelphia scoring 2,622 points (8.6 ppg). He also played professionally in Israel, Russia, China, Beirut, Puerto Rico, Hungary, Mexico, Korea and currently in the Big 3 professional 3-on-3 league. He resides in Fort Worth, Texas.

CORY NORMANJEFFERSONVILLE

AP high honorable mention all-state, IBCA honorable mention all-state, averaging 13.6 points and 8.8 rebounds as senior for Red Devils' 22-3 sectional champions. He was AP high honorable mention all-state and Bloomington Herald Times 3rd team all-state as a junior, averaging 10.6 points and 8.0 rebounds for their 29-2 state championship team. He totaled 1,150 career points, a school-record 796 rebounds, 237 assists and 232 steals for teams that went 96-12 winning four sectionals, three regionals, two semi-states and one state title. He and classmate Brien Hanley set school record for most games played (108), was a three-year starter, led team in rebounding for three seasons, was two-time all-HHC, Street & Smith's All-American, all-sectional, all-regional, all-semi-state and in the 1993 state finals totaled 35 points and 17 rebounds on 13-21 FG shooting in their two wins. After playing in 20 games his freshman year at Western Carolina University, injury and surgery derailed his playing career and he finished his education at the University of Southern Indiana. Employed in education and coaching throughout his career, he is currently a physical education teacher at Green Valley Elementary in New Albany and varsity assistant boys basketball coach at Jeffersonville High School. He resides in Jeffersonville.

JOE SIBBITTPAOLI

AP 3rd team all-state, 2nd team small school all-state and Indianapolis News 3rd team all-state. Averaged 17 points and 5.0 assists for 24-4 regional champions as senior, averaged 15.5 points and 5.2 assists as junior for 21-5 regional champions, 16.6 points and 3.2 assists as sophomore for 24-2 regional and 12.3 points and 2.3 assists as freshman for 19-5 sectional champions. Totaled 1,574 points and 439 assists for teams compiling a 88-16 record with four sectionals, three regional titles, four conference titles and winners of the 1993 HOF Classic. Played in 118 games at Austin Peay State University, graduating with 1,219 points, 265 assists and 107 steals. Named Ohio Valley Conference Freshman of the Year and 1996 OVC Tournament all-tournament team, he still holds Austin Peay records for career 3FG made (319), career 3FG attempts (830), season 3FG made (101), season 3FG attempts (258), game 3FG made (9) and game 3FG attempts (16) and is among leaders in career 3FG% (.384), minutes played (3,249) and points (22nd). He also still holds the OVC career records for 3FG made and 3FG attempts.

JAMIE UPTGRAFTSOUTHERN WELLS

AP high honorable mention and 1st team small school all-state. Averaged 24.4 points as senior, 22.4 points as junior for 15-6 conference champs, 15.1 points as sophomore and 10.6 points as freshman. He was the first-ever four-year 1st team all-ACAC selection, totaling school records of 1,508 career points (18.2 ppg), 376 assists (4.5 apg) and 262 steals (3.2 spg), to go along with 342 rebounds (4.1 rpg). He played 106 career games for the US Military Academy (Army), totaling 592 points (5.6 ppg), 258 rebounds and 246 assists. As a junior, averaging 10.1 ppg and 3.5 rebounds, he led the Patriot League in 3FG% (.410). Since 1999, he has been a US Army officer, currently a lieutenant colonel stationed in Fort Benning, Georgia. He was the head boys basketball coach at Jim Elliot Christian School in Denver, Colorado from 2014-16, with a 32-15 record and taking them to their first state tournament and the state Final Four. He resides in Fort Benning, Georgia.

BONZI WELLS

Selected as a 1994 Indiana All-Star. Consensus 1st team all-state selection by AP, IBCA, Bloomington Herald Times and Indianapolis News and AP honorable mention all-state and IBCA and Bloomington Herald 1st team underclass all-state as a junior. Averaged 24.9 points and 8.9 rebounds as senior for 24-2 regional and North Central Conference champions and 22.1 points and 12.9 rebounds as junior for 12-11 sectional champions. Totaled 1,177 points in two seasons (23.5 ppg) with career rebound average of 10.3 per game. Two-time all-North Central Conference, two-time East Central Indiana Player of the Year, a 1994 McDonald's All-American nominee, and participant in 1994 Albert Schweitzer 18U National All-Star Team playing in Mannheim, Germany. Set Ball State University and Mid-American Conference records with 2,485 career points and 347 steals – his steals total was 2nd best in NCAA history. Also set BSU records for FG made (913 – 22nd in NCAA history), 3FG attempts (437) and FT made (517). 1995 MAC Freshman of the Year, 1996 and 1998 MAC Player of the Year, and 1998 Basketball Weekly 1st team All-American and 1998 AP 3rd team All-American. 11th pick of 1998 NBA Draft and played 10 seasons in the NBA, totaling 7,147 points, 2,737 rebounds 1,249 assists and 769 steals. Presently a player in the Big 3 professional 3-on-3 league and an assistant coach at Muncie Central H.S. He resides in Carmel.

MUNCIE CENTRALLaDRELL WHITEHEAD

1994 Indiana All-Star. Consensus 1st team all-state by AP, IBCA, Bloomington Herald Times and Indianapolis News. Averaged 23.1 points and 4.9 assists as senior for 25-2 state finalists ranked #3 in the state, averaged 17.4 points, 5.4 rebounds and 4.2 assists as junior for 20-4 sectional champs ranked #12 in the state and 4.0 points as sophomore for 23-2 sectional champs ranked #3 in the state. Graduated with 1,138 career points, 254 rebounds and 273 assists. Two-time HHC champions, two-time HHC all-conference honors, and 1993 2nd team underclass all-state. Played two seasons at University of Wyoming, averaging 14.9 points as freshman and named WAC Freshman of the Year and 17.7 points as sophomore, then two seasons at Ohio University, averaging 21.7 points as junior and 18.9 points as senior. He was his team's leading scorer all four seasons, totaling 1,850 points (18.0 ppg), 364 rebounds, 362 assists and 195 steals in 103 games. He was a three-time team MVP, three-time all-conference and still holds Wyoming record for career steals average (2.1 per game), 8th in assists average (3.7 per game) and 10th in scoring average (16.3 per game). He played professionally for 10 years in the U.S., Puerto Rico, Greece and the Czech Republic. He works for Ford Motor Company and resides in New Albany.

NEW ALBANY

RUSTY YODERWESTVIEW

AP high honorable mention all-state, IBCA honorable mention and 3rd team small school all-state as senior averaging 22.9 points and 6.8 rebounds for 22-5 sectional & conference championship team. AP high honorable mention all-state as a junior averaging 23.4 points and 6.2 rebounds for 16-5 conference championship team. AP honorable mention all-state and IBCA honorable mention all-state as a sophomore averaging 19.8 points and 4.9 rebounds for 16-8 sectional championship team and averaged 10.6 points and 4.5 rebounds as freshman for 15-7 sectional and conference championship team. Graduated as school's 2nd all-time leading scorer with 1,698 points. Named 1993 South Bend Tribune MVP as a junior, three-time Tribune all-area team, three-time team MVP, multiple all-sectional, all-regional, 1st team all-conference honors and named by USA Today as one of Top 10 players in Indiana. Played two seasons at Southern Idaho J.C., averaging 7.5 points as freshman for 33-5 JuCo Final Four team and averaged 19.8 points as sophomore for 24-8 team that held #1 national ranking for multiple weeks. Averaged 10.5 points and 3.2 assists as starter at University of South Alabama as a junior as Sun Belt Conference Tournament MVP for team that won Sun Belt and played eventual national champion Arizona in the NCAA Tournament. Preseason all-conference and honorable mention All-American before senior season that was derailed by shoulder surgery after four games. Totaled 1,283 career points in just over three college seasons (12.3 ppg). He played in the LA summer league and one year in the International Basketball Association and has been an assistant coach at Westview High School for 10 seasons. He is owner & president of Yoder Popcorn, Yoder Ag, Trucking and a commercial property owner. He resides in Topeka.